Wedding night lodging: Knolle Farm & Ranch - what made it really fun was most of the wedding party stayed at Knolle Farm, so even when the wedding was over we still got to hang out with our close friends in the barn - really fun!

Favors: I made homemade vanilla and rosemary-infused olive oil and we also had bottle openers.

Bridal party gifts: Bridesmaids: robes and a personalized weekend bag; Groomsmen: personalized ice chests.

How we met:

We met 9 years ago through a mutual friend and have been together ever since.

The proposal:

He did it the day after Christmas when we were able to have our own little Christmas, just the two of us.

Favorite detail:

Bride: Sean's grandparents are from Canada and originally from Scotland and we had his grandpa lead us into the reception playing the bagpipes in his full Scottish kilt. Groom: That it was casual, fun, and truly reflected who we are both as a couple and as individuals.

Favorite moment:

Bride: I loved all of it. I made sure to enjoy it all and not get so busy worrying that I might miss all the fun of a wedding. Groom: Seeing my bride walk down the aisle. She looked absolutely stunning and it was a moment I will remember forever. (Oh, and for the record... it was well worth the 9-year wait!)

Biggest challenge:

Bride: I would say the planning and coordinating everyone but luckily I have some amazing friends who stepped up and helped me with all those things.

Groom: Time! Well, lack thereof.

Planning a wedding on top of the usual workload life brings is a lot. I am thankful for the friends & family members who generously offered to take a task (or three) off our plates during the planning process!

One piece of advice:

Bride: Make sure to take time and actually enjoy your wedding day that you've spent all this time and energy on. Groom: Don't sweat the small stuff and communicate with each other throughout the planning process.

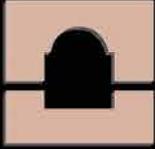

How to make your spouse happy:

Groom: Always listen to her and let her take all the "girl trips" she wants!

What you look forward to most:

Bride: Babies! We've been together for 9 years, so we've already done the living together part, now I'm ready to start our family. Groom: Starting a family together.
